Class Song

“Long and Winding Road” (John Lennon, Paul McCartney)

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Robert Frost

Alma Mater, hear our prayer:
Thanks we give for loving care.
May we all thy mem'ries share
Alma Mater, hear us.

On our journeys far and wide
Thou shalt always be our guide
And thy teachings by our side
We shall cherish always.

Like our namesake, may we be
Filled with love and loyalty.
We'll be true to thy memory
Dickinson, our high school.
